TO RAISE THE WIND

Trips to the Pawnbroker When Fortune Proves Unkind.

SOME OF LIFE'S LITTLE TRAGEDIES

All Sorts and Conditions of Men Call Upon Their Uncle.

INCIDENTS OF A SINGLE DAY

N A CRISP, BRACing afternoon early this week a nattily this week a nattily ciad young fellow, walking blithely down the north side of Pennsylvania avenue, with his sack coat tightly buttoned, suddenly executed a movement on the left flank, and crossed rapidly to the south side of the avenue. He disappeared within an emperium over the lintel of the door of which is suspended that emblem of barter that has endured since the days of the Doges-the three gilded globes. When he emerged he wore, beaides a look of beatitude, a rather handsome English top coat-a trifle creased in spets, but still handsome-and he smelt of moth balls. He was no longer in a hurry. He crossed back to the north side of the avenue, and walked in the direction of the Capitol with the leisureliness of a man bound for a dog show or for nowhere in particular.

In the course of the afternoon about : dozen men were observed to go through the same performance. They all resumed

"Fo" Said He.

the north side of the avenue swaddled in the outer garment that wards off the chill f October's nipping winds. This is the "getting-out" season in the habit—yet it has been pronounced a dis-ease by expert testimony. An English larmaid who married a very wealthy man recently got herself into jail and into the dd Balley on account of a little practice he had acquired of pawning all the valable articles she could lay her hands upon nging to her new friends of the haut The medico-legal experts and psyhological lawyers got her out of the mess y maintaining, and proving, that the habit of pawning things had so grown upon her during her days of comparative anything she happened upon that worth "shoving up." This was looked worth "shoving up." This was a delightful vindication of Lombrosoism and the "influence of previous environ-

So Easy to Get In.

"It's so dead easy to get 'in hock." sail a plaid-apparelled Washington youth, "but getting out"-and he executed a couple of jig steps and went through the preiiminary contortions of a member of a tugof-war team at practice. He expressed the whole dismal philosophy of the pawn-ng habit in pantomime.

In proportion to its size and population Washington has a sufficient number of pawnshops. The proprietor of one of them pawnshops. The proprietor of one of the pawnshops. The proprietor of one of the accorded a Star man an unusual privilege a few days ago. He permitted him to

"Well, Cough It Up.

that shuts out the exoteric world from the world of wealth on the pawnbroker's side of the counter. Installed on the pawnbroker's side The Star man was permitted to bury himself in a month-old copy of his own newspaper—it had served as the wrapper for a silk skirt, recently brought in-and to pretend to read his own "stuff" in it with very great delight and appreciation, the while the procession from the exoteric world-hesitatingly, boldly, amateurishly, scientifically-passed in rethe close of the afternoon was this:

When people go to a pawnshop for money

When people go to a pawnshop for money they want money so intensely!

The first customer was a man-or he had been one, perhaps. He slouched in. He was sodden. He was unshorn and unshaven. "Castaway" was written in his looks, gait, carriage.

Pretty Low Down.

"Well?" said the pawnbroker, in the tone of a lawyer for the defense questioning a witness for the presecution.

The wreck held up the tiniest ring imaginable-a baby's gold ring, with a little spark of a diamond setting. The pawnbroker took it and looked at it in the light. "Where'd'je get it?" said he.

"Kid," said the wreck.

"Mine."
"How much?" "Two dollars."

"Dollar?"

"Dollar?"
The wreck reflected.
"All ri'," said he.
When the wreck had gone: "Now he can to and negotiate for ten nice, large, warm lrinks of booze," said the pawnbroker to

The Star man The next patron was a youth who came for his overcoat. The youth wore diamonds His dialect was not Washingtonese.

He slapped the ticket down on the counter like a man in a hurry.
"Want to take it out?" inquired the "Well, say, do you suppose I came here to swap the ticket off for a linen duster? And, say, gimme me coat quick, and lem-me get out o' here, before I soak me gig-lamp and me ring! I can't trust meself in these joints!" Customer No. 3 was a very warm Afro-American "sport," dressed to kill. His make-up was that of a London music hall negro minstrel. He peeled off his fine covert cloth top coat and threw it on the

"Fo'," said he.
"Should think y ld think you'd need the coat, Mose, said the pawnbroker, handing out the money and ticket. The Afro-American hot member grinned. money and tieket.

The Afro-American hot member grinned.
"Dey's a-goin' tuh be some chicken fightin' down 'n' Alexandry d'rekshun tuhnight, an' ef Ah doan' mek uh wahm win-out Ah'il eat yo' hat!"

Out of the Ordinary.

Patron No. 4 was extraordinary. He was a fine-looking, thoroughly well-tailored, middle-aged man. But he had begun to dine early in the day, so that he lurched some. A district messenger boy in uniform was with him. The patron wasn't much good in the matter of navigation, but he had his head on his shoulders and knew his gait, even if he did have a list of ten or more degrees to starboard. The pawabroker rubbed his hands when the pawnoroker rubbed his hands when the man and the messenger came in. The man didn't say a word, but he pulled out of his white puff tie a magnificent horseshoe of blue diamonds. This he put down on the glass case. Then, with some effort, he pulled two rings from the third finger of his left hand—one of them a big rose soil-take the others a scale with big wide. his left hand—one of them a big rose soil-taire, the other a snake with big rubies. These he put down beside the horseshoe. Then he pulled out a diamond-incrusted watch. He tried to unfasien it from the chain, but couldn't. The messenger boy did the job for him. The man put the watch beside his other things on the glass case. It was rather an attractive pile of jewelry.

"What'll ye gimme on whole mesh?" said the man. The pawnbroker was examining the man. The pawnbroker was examining the pledges critically. "Eight hundred dollars," said he, finally.

The man who had dined early smiled greasily.
"Not mush you won't," said he. "You'll "Not mush you won't," said he. "You'll gimme ten dollarsh whole bash. Lash 'lime 'uz here got tushed f'r all m' jewl'ry—tough town, 'Shington; ver' tough town. Do'n 'tend get tushed thish trip 'f I know m'shelf, 'n think I do. Hock jewl'ry, thash whash, 'n put tickesh 'ith hotel clerk. No jay—no' mush. Feshed meshenger kid 'long remin' me where 'uz goln' an' take me hotel Gimme ten on bash."

The pawubroker made out what the man

The pawnbroker made out what the man wanted all right, and gave him ten dollars on his $2,000 worth of jewelry.
"That's a new one on me," said the pawn-broker, when the man with the starboard list had departed with his messenger. "Wonder it didn't strike him to deposit his jeweiry at his hotel, instead of the tickets. But they're all pipey-pipey-hey?'

Wanted to Go to Cholsey.

"I said, what'll you give me on the ticker?" repeated the jockey-looking youth who had come in. The pawnbroker looked at the watch's case, and then opened it up and examined the works.

"Couple dollars," he said. "Oh, g'wan there, Bill, an' stop yer fool-in'; on the level, what'll you gimme on it?" "Couple dollars," repeated the pawn-roker, looking straight ahead.
"Ah. say, Bill, cut it out, that joshin', an'

give us a price on the ticker."
"Couple dollars." said the pawnbroker, looking out of the window at a girl trying to mount a bike.

'Say, Bill, you're a stringer from Dopesay, Bill, you're a stringer from Dope-ville, ain't you? But, say, lookee here, I've got to git to Choisey City tonight, an' I ain't got th' price of the ride. G'wan, now, on the level, what'll you gimme on the—"

"Couple dollars," said the pawnbroker.
"Well, cough it up," said the jockey-looking youth who wanted to make Jersey City.
A very old colored woman, smoking a very black pipe, clomped in in a pair of men's heavy brogans. She passed a dain tily scented pink note across the counter to the pawnbroker, and then slowly undid the numerous tissue-paper wrappings from a very beautiful antique silver tea urn. The old colored woman didn't say a word while she was doing this. The pawnbroker gave only a glance at the urn, and then put it in the silverware case.

"I've got pretty nearly the whole set now, hey, mammy?" said he.

"Umph," said the old mammy, puffing at her pipe. The pawnbroker made out the ticket and iollar bill. "Lon't you lose it, mammy," said he.

"No bettuh, praise de Lawd!" said the old mammy, and she went out.

A Very Sad Case.

"Can't afford to get weepy in this business," said the pawnbroker, "but that's a pretty sad case, all the samee. That old mammy is the last remaining servant of a fine old spinster living in Georgetown, who used to be very wealthy, but she was 'done' out of all her money by real estate sharks some years ago. She has been an invalid for two years, and probably won't last much longer. I got all of the family jewelry and heirlooms a long while ago. and have been gathering in the plate and sliverware for six months now. The old sliverware for six months now. The old hady doesn't sell the stuff outright, because she has the hallucination that she'll be able to get it all out some day, but—"

"Oh. Wilhe, do not lose me, whatever else you do!" carolled a gay young thing, who tripped in just at this point. "Ah, there, me old Shylocklets! Expecting me." No? Ni? Not? Well, here's me merry little marquise sgain! Make it a hun. fift. instead of a hun. this time, will you?"
She was in purple velvet, tailor-made. She was in purple velvet, tailor-made. The black plumes on her hat were two feet high. She was rouged. But she was

"Can't do it, Min," said the pawnbroker; "Car't do it, Min," said the pawnbroker;
"ring ain't worth more'n a hundred and twenty-five"
"Ikey, you're a hop-doze. I saw it bought meself, and it cost two hundred cold iron skemolles. But a hun.'ll do, you old skeesicks." And she waltzed out into the autume superbine.

tumn sunshine.

"If she hasn't paid for that ring in interest a couple of times over," mused the pawnbroker, "I'll swallow it."

An old Hibernian lady was next. She laid down a ticket for a suit of clothes. The "It was lucky I started for here on hickory frame bicycle."-Life, pawnbroker got the suit out, wrapped it up, and gave it to the old lady. She passed over the money, and made for the door. She held the door half opened, and then

"Bad cess, t' th' loikes o' yeez!" she yelled above the roar of the street traffic. "If it wasn't fur such omadhouns as ye, me Moike (an' may th' divil spike him!) 'ud have a dacent suit o' clothes t' go t' mass in wanct a month, annyhow." And she pulled the door to with a bang.

A dejected youth was next. He "spouted" his evening suit for ten dollars.
"That's the third spiketail I've had within two years," he said, gloomlly. "I got two wears out o' each of 'em. One's in Denver; other's in Omaha. Oh, well!"

UNIVERSITY NOTES

Georgetown University.

The topic for discussion at the next meeting of the Philonomosian Society is "Resolved, That the Salvation Army is beneficial to humanity." Messrs. E. Smith and John Keane are the speakers on the affirmative, while Messrs. M. Walsh and Jos. Fitzpatrick have the negative.

The next meeting of the Philodemic Society will have Messrs. Kirby and Bell on the affirmative, and Taylor and Bates on the negative of the question, "Resolved, That the municipal government should have control of gas and water works."

Wefers, who has broken two records during the past summer, the 120 and 220-yard dashes, arrived during the week, and will probably become a member of the medical school. Much interest is manifested in ath-letics, and it is thought that it is largely due to this that the attendance has in-creased. The bicycle races to take place this afternoon are attracting a great deal of interest.

The class of '98 is studying geology in a practical way by taking trips into the sur-rounding country, two of these having been made during the week.

It is expected that a new grand stand will be erected in the near future, as the old one is neither convenient nor large enough. The Greeks defeated the preps in the athletic meet between the two classes last Saturday. The regular fall meet of the university will be held during the first week in November. Nine events are on the card for the bi-cycle meet this afternoon, and following are some of the prizes donated: Silver are some of the prizes donated; silver chariot, Mr. James Alexander and Mr. S. Feland; pair tires, Mr. P. Von Boeckman; gold medal, Mr. J. D. Lasley; thoroughbred bull terrier pup, Mr. E. S. Schmid. Messrs. Schade and Dannemiller also offered prizes.

The interclass schedule of foot ball games is being considered, and will probably be completed soon, when the line-up of the various class teams will be pub-

The Christian Endeavor Society meets tonight to discuss the topic "Our Work," the meeting to be conducted by Mr. Grant Leet, president of the District Union. The reports of the chairmen of the several committees will be submitted and a general discussion had on the outline of work for the coming term.

The Literary Society met last night to discuss the question as to whether or not the United States would have been justifled had it officially taken action and re-leased the young Cuban, Senorita Evana gelina Cosic y Cisneros. This mooted question was discussed at some length by the speakers of the evening and much interest was manifested on the part of those present. A special feature of the evening was the rendition by Messrs. Fox, Holmes and Brown of several selections of instrumental

The committee on athletics has arranged a schedule of field games open to students in the different departments of the uni-versity, and training for the various events is now being done.

The Glee, Banjo, Mandolin and Guitar Clubs are preparing a program for rendition during the month of November. The date has not been settled as yet.

Candidates for the foot ball team are in training and the selection of the team will be made during the coming week.

Columbian University. A general invitation has been extended

Practice is indulged in daily at 4 p.m. Yesterday the debate of the Enosinian

Society was on the question, "Resolved, That crime is the direct result of heredity."

Messrs. Cutter and Stuart had the af-firmative and Messrs. Everett and Beatty the negative. Miss Ross edited the News and Mr. Cutter the Bee. Mr. F. Norton Everett has been chosen president for the Everett has been chosen president for the term and Mr. J. W. Beatty secretary.

The first regular meeting of the law school debating society will be held this evening, when officers for the ensuing term will be elected and a program arranged for the next meeting. Willard A. Rill, the vice president of last year, has returned, and is a candidate for the presidency.

The junior law class will meet Monday evening after the lecture to perfect class or-ganization. The seniors, of whose organi-zation Mr. John W. Wright is president, held a meeting Thursday evening for the transaction of routine business. Prof. Lee Davis Lodge has so far recover-ed from his recent illness that he has been able to resume his duties at the university. Walter Thomas of the Washington Business High School won the Robertson scholarship in the Corcoran Scientific School for the highest general average in the former institution. Charles Jones is named

The prize for the theory of machine ele ments in the Corcoran Scientific School was won by V. C. Tasker.

Professor Jackson formed his new Latin class Tuesday evening last, at 7:30 o'clock.

Professor Davis delivered his second lecture on "History of the Law" Wednesday largest enrollment for some years. Judge Tucker addressed the class and assigned a number of cases. He gave "Articles of Copartnership" to be prepared by each member of the court. Judge Tucker intends, if necessary, to hold the moot court three evenings a week. At present the evenings evenings a week. At present the evenings will be Monday and Friday, commencing at 7.30. Mr. O. P. M. Brown of the class the court of appeals.

Professor Ralston has commenced his

Professor Carusi is at present in charge of the senior class, who are studying Williams on Real Property. He will subsequently take charge of the junior class and carry it through the Law of Contracts and carry it through the Law of Contracts and Negotiable Instruments, after which he will resume charge of the senior class. Judge Alvey will commence, very shortly, his lectures on "Constitutional Law."

A committee was appointed to redraft the constitution and by-laws.

A meeting of the several classes for election of officers will be held the first week in November.

Quite a number joined the class.

National University.

as alternate.

recent games having developed weak

den Cowden (socialist). for candidates for the foot ball team, the that it is necessary should be cured before Morday on behalf of the democratic party. the team can make any very good showing.

A deed has been recorded in the clerk's office conveying to Robert Elliott of Alexandria a lot conveying to Robert Elliott of Alexandria a lot containing four acres, near West End, for $1,650.

The county clerk has issued marriage licenses to John I. Davis and Lottic A. Thompson; Herbert Allen and Virginia B. Gunnell; Richard C. Carter and Ellen Louise Fitzhugh; Alfred Dixon and Virgie Honesty; Robert Jeter and Lyddie Dixon.

Among the prisoners in Jail is Ernest Day, a colored boy, not more than ten years old, sent there by Justice Taylor for three months. The offense was stealing money from his grandfather, Frank Day.

offense was stealing money from his grandiation, Frank Day.

Mr. Wm. Dodson, who had been ill for a long the work of the community and this week. The itime with consumption, died this week. The funeral took place from Lee Chapel, in this county. Messrs, Chas, E. Roberts and Edward G. Evans have sold their lot, centaining three and one-half acres, near the village, to Mr. C. Vernon Ford for $1,000. Mr. Ford expects to tear down the small house thereon and creet a dwelling costing about $2,500.

Rev. W. H. F. Denty,

dale Friday night last. The Hyattsville Orchestra met at Mr. J. B. Fowler's, with Dr. Richardson and Mr. Wm. Kretchmar, cornetists; Miss Ham-lin, Mrs. Bennett, Mr. Vanderen, Mr. Havell and Mr J. B. Fowler, violinists; Mr. Wm. Havell, violencello; Mr. Harry B. Fowler, flutist, and Mr. Gilbert Fox as planist. They rendered "Happy Doys in Dixie," "Rastus on Parade," "Ben Hur Charlot Race," "Stars and Stripes," "March of the Brownies" and several valtzes.

The Young People's Club met at Mr. Rynex's house Friday night. The entertainment consisted of a "Love story told by flowers." Mrs. O. H. Smith won the first prize and Dr. Ellis the booby evening, to a large audience, comprising not only the students of the school, but a number of visitors. He will continue to lecture on this subject Wednesday evenings until further notice.

The moot court was formally opened Mcnday evening at 7:39 o'clock, with the largest enrollment for some years. Judge largest enrollment for some years, Judge and Judge Sautheld a meeting Tuesday, October 12, at Calvert mansion, Mr. McKean in the largest should be supported by the subject of the largest enrollment for some years.

The Athletic Club held a meeting Tuesday, October 12, at Calvert mansion, Mr. McKean in the chair. The organization of a foot hall club, a basket ball club and arrangements for an open ternis tournament were accomplished. A dance at Hyattsville, to be given next week, under the auspices of this club, promises to be most enjoyable.

The public school at Riverdale has forty-two pupils enrolled.

at 7:30. Mr. O. P. M. Brown of the class of '96 has been appointed clerk of the moot court. Mr. Howard P. Heinecke of The public school at Riverdale has forty-two pupils enrolled.

The Riverdale Citizens' Association met in the hall Wednesday evening, October 13, Mr. Burchfield presiding. The question of the incorporation of Riverdale was the topic which absorbed the attention of those present.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Preston, Margum, Smythe and Knight was appointed to investigate the practicability of incorporation. The sentiment of the meeting in favor of the movement was unanimous. the class of '97 has been appointed clerk of quiz of the junior class on Brown's Domes-tic Relations. The sessions of this class are held Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday

The entertainment given Tuesday night at the M. E. Church proved to be a success, and a good sum was realized, which will be devoted to church purposes. The program was as follows: Recitation, Helen Moore; vocal solo, Miss Ella Laurenson; The first case in the moot court will came up for hearing in about two weeks.

There was a largely attended meeting of the members of the Debating Society for the purpose of reorganization for this year. reading, Miss Dalsy Clarke; alto solo, Miss Martha Garthwaite; recitation, Miss Anna McCoach; recitation, Miss Eva Hund; reading, Mrs. Hospital;

ter work, in connection with which similar social gatherings will be held every month.

Mr. Philip Robinson, registrar of the Catholic University, is located, with his family, in Eckington. Prof. Maurice F. Egan, professor of English is also located in this suburb, as is E. B. Briggs, a law student

The new Mt. Olivet M. P. Church was dedicated last Sanday. The dedicatory sermon was delivered by Dr. Hammond of the Congress Street Church of West Washington. Invocation by Dr. Elderdiec, who also conducted the dedicatory service. Mr. special music was rendered by the choir. of Rev. T. E. Andrews, and a short address was merning and afternoon subscriptions amounted to over $250, leaving about the same debt to be assumed by the trustees.

A cantata, entitled "Under the Palms," will be given on October 19 at the M. P. Charch. The quartet will be from Washington, but the chorus will be rendered by local talent, under the directorship of Mr. Robert Croson.

A surprise party was recently given to the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas of "Rose Cottage." Quite a number of her little friends were present, and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by them all.

home, for burial.

At the last meeting of the Church Improvement and Literary Society Mr. and Mrs. H. Parker, Miss Lacey Johnson, Mr. Hoyt Johnson and Cameron Hayes were elected members. The plan of the program committee for the coming six mentls will be a course of study of historical English faction.

The Enterprise can been as the White family, they having decided to compose to California on or about the 15th of Nocember.

FAIRFAX COURT HOUSE.

FAIRFAX COURT HOUSE.

The time is now up within which, under the election law, candidates are to send their names to the county clerk to be printed on the official ballot. Three candidates for the legislature have sent in their names. They are Jos. E. Willard (democrat), O. E. Blue (republican) and Jas. Selden Cowden (socialist).

Major Hoge Tyler, R. W. Moore and Jos. E. Willard (amocrat), R. W. Moore and Jos. E. Willard are expected to speak in the court house left. Blaif farm, with Harold Hopkins, in November.

The Enterprise cam near to seek Spring farm, the beautiful and productive Rock Spring farm, the structure of the beautiful and the lection district dilyattsville) is 119.

The total number of new registration in the second election district dilyattsville) is 119.

The total number of new registration in the second election district the seconing cone few are transferred from other of the lost and the remainder are new residents. The total number of new registration is the second election district thystas was no one in the kitchen two colored men enbeen issued.

North Laurel has organized a democratic club. Mr. A. P. Webb is constructing two very fine ores on Main street. Laurel is very much in need of an officer who has been called to this several times.

Mr. H. Owdenwald is having a canal cut through his property so as to change the course of the Patuxent river. This, it is believed, will greatly improve his property and stop the overflows.

Miss Reta Gibert of Laurel has been visiting friends in Philadelphia.

A meeting will be held at the residence of Miss Famile Shipley at Savage, Md., next Tuesday evening, the object of which is to organize a social club.

the improvement is greatly appreciated by the farmers.

The farmers of Howard county are following the footsteps of their nelghbors of Montgomery county, and are organizing a club, which will meet once a week, for exchange of ideas regarding farming, and to further the interest of the farmer.

Rev. Smith of the M. E. Church South has been holding revival meetings at the church of that denomination in Savage.

The Laurel foot ball eleven will play its first game here Saturday, the 3d, at the grounds near the Keely Institute.

Mr. Evans Duvall will resume business in Laurel, after a number of years' retirement.

the library and to all the advantages of the W. Lewis, H. K. Mancakee, J. W. Blackburn and Judge C. F. Scott.

Mr. H. C. Smith and family of Washington have taken Miss Katle Hayden's house for the winter. Miss Hayden has gone to Washington. Judge C. F. Scott and family have removed to Washington for the winter.

The Hyattsville Euchre Club will meet next week for the purpose of reorganizing. With a few exceptions, the club will be composed of last year's Hagerstown for a brief visit. Miss MacCartar and Mr. MacCartar of Trenton N. J., are visiting Mrs. Young. Mr. and Mrs. Marion B. Freeman are friends in St. Mary's county. Mr. Roger Beills and Mr. Walter Payne hav about completed their new houses on Johnson ave-about completed their new houses on Johnson avenue.

The Tuesday Literary Club will meet next Tuesday evening at the Cycle Club House. The Hyattsville Orchestra will be in attendance.

The judges and clerks or registration were engaged Tuesday in revising the lists of voters.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. White, who have been spending several weeks at Atlantic City, have returned.

The Hyattsville Cycle Club gave its first annual oyster roast Friday night at the club house on Railroad avenue. The majority of the cycle clubs from Washington were represented, and there was a large crewd present. During the evening the Hyattsville Orchestra rendered appropriate pieces. The officers of the club are A. R. ed lim, with a view of finding papers or letters on his person which might reveal lits identity. Noth-ing of the kind, however, could be found. The stranger was bocked up in the little jail at Bladens-larg, and for several hours his shricks were heard throughout the towa. Later the unfortunate man was taken to Mariboov, where he could be better carred for until he is taken charge of by the proper authorities. It is supposed he escaped from some institution for the insane.

Mrs. Sarah Stallsmith will pay an extended visit have been elected to represent Mt. Zion Baptist Church at the Maryland Association in Baltimore d fatal results. Rev. Robert McNair of Rockville Presbyterian Rev. Robert McNair of Rockville Presbyterian Church has just closed a week's series of sermons at Moatrose school building. Mrs. Mary Cartin is suffering from a severe at-tack of pleurisy.

ROCKVILLE.

Sixth-William P. Dawson, Benjamin G. Harriss, Jetson G. Fleids, Seventh-Benjamin Perry, James H. Loughborough, John N. Kelly, Elgath-Philip T. Stabler, George W. Cashell, Charles L. Berry, Keuben V. Young, Ninth-William C. Crawford, Richard H. Offutt, Francis W. Higgins, Henry C. Miller. Tenth-Edward S. Hunter, Richard L. Samders, Harvey C. Fawett, Eleventh-Joseph W. Jones, Frank A. Pearse, Lewis D. Malnhart, Twelfth-Rezin G. Mullinix, George A. Merson, Carence Hillion, Thirteenth-Lewis B. F. Graeves, Wm. H. Mannakee, John B. Clark, Alfred E. Ray, George P. Fenwick.

The following business was transacted in the orphans' court: Mary J. Colt, executrix of Ellen Cochrane, deceased, passed first and final account. Hattan A. Waters, administrator of Andrew J. Waters, deceased, passed first and final account. Wilfred McLeod, administrator of Wilfred M. McLeod, filed inventory of the personal property of said deceased. The sale of the real estate of Patrick Coff, deceased, reported to and filed for ratification, was rejected by an order of the court. John B. Heeter, administrator of John Heeter, deceased, passed first and sinal account.

A meeting of the Sunday school workers and scholars of this district will be held in the Presbyterian Church, Ro-kville, October 17, at 3 o'clock pm. The meeting will be held under the auspices of the Montgomery County Sunday School Union, and will be modernted by Mr. Frank B. Horner, president do the district. A report on the last annual convention of the union will be made by President Horner. The work the executive committee hopes to accomplish in 1897-8 will be outlined by the chairman, W. A. Dobson. How best to aid this work in our district will be discussed by Charles W. Prettyman and others.

A mission will begin at St. John's Gaurch, Forest Glen, Md., on Sunday, October 24, and close on the St. At St. Mary's Church, Rockville, a mission by the same fathers will begin October 31, and close on Sunday, November 7. Rev. Charles Warren Currier and Rev. Thomas S. Dohan will conduct duct these missions.

Mr. E. V. Robey has been sent as a delegate from the Christ Church Chapter, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, to the international convention at Buf-

TO CURE NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Kno What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean, Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspensia Tablets.

Interesting Experience of an Indianapolis Gentleman.

diamapolis Gentleman.

No trouble is more common or more misundersteed than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think that their nerves are to binne and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicine and spring remedies; the real seat of the mischief is lost sight of; the stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspepties often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others, the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of feesh and appetite, with accumulation of gas, sour risings and heartburn.

Mr. A. W. Sharper of No. 61 Prospect st., Indianapolis, Ind., writes as follows; "A motive of pure gratitude prompts me to write these few lines regarding the new and valuable medicine. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have been a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia for the last four years; have used various patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable result. They sometimes gave temporary relief until the effects of the medicine wore of. I attributed this to my sedentary habits, being a bookkeeper with little physical exercise, but I am giad to state that the tablets have overcome all these obstacles, for I have gained in flesh, sleep better and am better in every way. The above is written not for notoriety, but is based on actual fact."

Respectfully yours.

A. W. Sharper,

61 Prospect st., Indianapolis, Ind.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except 61 Prospect st., Indianapolis, Ind.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of fiesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

Send for valuable little book on stomach diseases by addressing Stuart to., Marshall, Mich.

All druggists sell full-sized packages at 50 cents. oc13&16

again returned to Rockville to spend the scholasti

Berlin Letter to the Chicago Record.

might be adopted by the railways of the eral minutes, sometimes so long that they miss their train, can go to an automatic delay. The whole transaction does not occupy half a minute, and the automatic machine never makes a mistake in the ticket or the change.

There is a similar arrangement for securing tickets to the platform. If you go to see a friend off you must leave him at the gate or pay a few cents for the privilege of accompanying him to the train. You get a platform ticket from one of these nickel-in-the-slot machines. The governnickel-in-the-slot machines. The govern-ment is said to derive a revenue of several million marks annually from this source alone.

in other respects they are poorer than he or plantations. He is on his farm with the regularity that a cashier is at his desk in a bank and as many days in the year and Shopping. From Puck.

Going to Better stay at home and get

GOLD

from your grocer. Sold everywhere and

Cleans Everything. MADE ONLY BY THE N. K. PAIRBANK COMPANY,

FALES CHURCH. Mr. M. M. Shand of Washington led the Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening, and gave an interesting address on the pledge. Miss Tillie Rawlings, who represented the society here in the annual session of the state organization re-cently held in Norfolk, will make a report of the meeting Sunday evening.

Rev. John MtGill, fector of the Episcopal Church of this town, while out driving in Fauquier county last week riet with quite a serious accident. His house became frightened and ran away, throwing hotse became frightened and ran away, throwing him to the ground, where he remained unconscious for some time. He has returned home, and is improving.

A business meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society will be held at the home of Prof. H. F. Lowe this evening.

In the debate between Pioneer Lodge of Good Templars of this town and Columbia Lodge of Washington, on the subject of the South Carolina dispensary law as a means for regulating the liquor traffic, which took place last week, Pioneer came out successful.

Miss Nellie E. Hawxhurst left Friday for a visit to her aunt, Mrs. William Flowers, at Bethlehem, Conn., and will return about the last of November. The town council met Monday night, with Mayor J. D. Payno preaiding. Mr. M. E. Church and a delegation from the village improvement Society were present, urging the lighting of the street lamps. The town sergeant was allowed 40 cents per day each for board of prisones.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Bawxhurgt have returned from a bridal toar of three weeks.

Mr. Bert Buxton of the state of Washington is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Buxton. Mrs. A. C. Rorobeck, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Agnes, is in Nebraska visiting her sisterin-law.

The teachers of the public graded school of the Mrs. A. C. Rorebeck, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Agnes, is in Nebraska visiting her sisterin-law.

The teachers of the public graded school of the town have filed with the clerk of the school beard their first monthly report of the term, showing an enrollment of one hundred and fifty-five scholars in the four departments.

Quite a serious accident occurred Tuesday to Mrs. J. W. Taylor and Miss Bella Veltch. The horse attached to the buggy in which they were seated became frightened at East End depot and ram at full speed up Washington street, and in turning in the yard of Mr. Veitch, the occupants were thrown out. Miss Della Veltch was painfully injured, and Mrs. Taylor considerably bruised. A large delegation of Odd Fellows from Mt. Pleasant Lodge, No. 23, of the District of Colombia, visited Falls Church Lodge, No. 11, Thursday night. They were introduced to the lodge by Deputy Grand Master Geo. W. Hawxhurst and Past Grands G. A. and J. H. Brunner, and were coidially welcomed by Noble Grand W. J. Smith. During the evening addresses were made by Messrs. W. H. Kimball, J. Z. Yoder, M. B. Hundley, A. J. Schippe t, Wm. B. Matthews, W. T. Low, E. F. Massey, P. W. Russell, S. F. Williams, Louis Colvin, C. E. Bartges, M. M. and J. C. Dillinger. After the adjournment of the lodge a banduct was served in the lower hall of Odd Fellows' building.

The services at Emery Chapel last Sunday even-ing were wholly in the hands of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, that organization hav-Society of Christian Endeavor, that organization having provided addresses and music appropriate to the commencing of the new official term. Mr. W. E. Nally led the meeting on a topic taken from the pledge, "Whatever He would have me to do." Mr. Zimmerman, chairman of the music committee of the District Union, led the music, and the organ music was supplemented by that of a cornet organ music was supplemented by that of a cornet played by Mr. Gottwald of Washington. The attendance was unusually large, and the exercises exceedingly interesting. The new officers are: President, Mr. John J. Keene; vice president, Miss Georgia Willett, and trensurer, Miss Neilie Willett. Tickets are out for an entertainment to be given by "The Dra Min" Cinb of Brightwood, in the hall, on Friday, the 29th of October. A program exceptionally good for an amateur production has been arranged, and includes three comic sketches, several songs and recitations and a violin solo by Miss Bischoff of Washington. An orchestra of nine pieces has been engaged, and the club is determined to have everything first-class.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas: J. Faulstich have returaed from a visit to relatives in Philadelphia, Pa., bringing with them Miss Alice Ball of that place, who will remain with them for some time.

Miss Dixie Lee Sprake has returned to her home, in Cynthiana, Ky.

In answer to the request of several citizens for a permit to place a drain under Film street, the Commissioners have stated that sewers were to be laid through the Park "soon." This is a much-needed improvement, and it is hoped that "soon" may mean within a few months.

Brightwood is soon to lose one of its oldest residents, the White family, they having decided to remove to California on or about the 15th of November. played by Mr. Gottwald of Washington. The at-sent in their names. They are Jos. E. Willard (democrat), O. E. Hine (republican) and Jas. Sel-

$2,500. Rev. W. H. K. Pendleton, pastor of Zion P. E. Church, assisted by Rev. E. S. Hinks of Leesburg, is helding a mission at Manassas. Mrs. Mary Ford of Baltimore, Md., is visiting her son, Mr. C. V. Ford. Mrs. Jus. Hunton and Miss Mary Dulaney of Buckland, Fauquier county, are guests at Judge Jas. M. Love's.

A musical treat was given the people of iliver-

BROOKLAND.

Stewart and a pleasing address by Mr. R. V. Andrews. A hymn and benediction closed the evening.

A jolly straw ride was enjoyed Tuesday night by a party of young people from Washington, the destination being the residence of Miss Harty Moore, on the McCeney estate. The large old mansion was thrown open to the guests, and the rooms were prettily decorated with flowers and auturnal leaves. At a late hour supper was served. Those present were Mr. Benj. H. Moore, Miss Mary Herbert, Misses Carrie and Grace Herbert, Mr. Nicholson, Mr. Emery Moore, Mrs. Edith Lohr, Mr. Chas. Boyer, Mrs. Beach, Mr. Raynond Beach.

Mr. Benj. H. Moore and sister Hadassah had a pleasant gathering Wednesday evening in honor of the birthday of Mrs. A. J. Boyer of Washington. Those present were Mrs. Edith Lohr and daughter and Mr. Chas. Boyer.

The Calvary Union Sunday school will hold its "rally" tomorrow. There will be short addresses by Rev. George Duncan and Rev. C. O. Cook.

There was a meeting of the University Club Thursday night at McMahon Hall to reorganize for the coming college term. The officers elected were: President, F. J. Fox: vice president, M. Igoe; treasurer, John J. O'Brien, and secretary, Leo Stock. BALLSTON.

Robert Croson sang a solo, "The Holy City," and vening service was a union C. E. rally, in charge over $250, leaving about the same debt to be were present, and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by them all.

The many friends of the family will be grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. Basil De Lashauit, who parsed away on Wednesday, at 7:30 a.m., after a protracted fliness. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn her loss. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Boteler, and the remains were taken to Frederick, Md., formerly her home, for burial.

At the last meeting of the Church Improvement

The Enterprise Club held its recent gathering at

of more than a hundred sheep. After a pleasant and profitable evening, the club adjourned to the White Hail farm, with Harold Hopkins, in November.

The Sandy Spring Cycle Club a few days since took a run, which was partly a walk, across contry through Kensington to the Cabin John bridge. A plente dinner and a rest of a few hours enabled the party to wheel homeward, well satisfied with their first attempt at a ride of some forty miles. The Whist Club has revived with autumn breezes, as usual, Mr. and Mrs. Alban Brooke receiving it on Friday evening.

The demestic and horticultural society known as "The Neighbors" was entertained by the Misses Tyon at Marden.

Mrs. R. Rowland Moore and children of Suffolk, Va., who have spent the summer with Mrs. William W. Moore, expect to return home shortly, accompanied by Miss Hattle Brockenbrough, who has been in Sandy Spring a month.

A number of the young friends of Miss Sarah B. Farquhar conspired with some of her family to give her a surprise party on Friday evening by way of a parting salute before she leaves for Beston to be absent until June.

Lete visitors have been Mr. and Mrs. B. Hallowell Farquhar of York, Felward T. Hallowell of Massachusetts. Miss Johnson, Miss Frances Osborne, Dr. William Heron and Albert Stabler of Weshington and Miss Eighn of Vicginia. Mrs. Francis Thomas is visiting Mrs. Thomas R. Smith of Lincoln, Va., and Mrs. Joseph T. Moore is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Smith of Lincoln, Va., and Mrs. Thomas R. Smith of Lincoln, Va., and Mrs. Thomas Is. Moore of Richmond. Mrs. E. P. Thomas is in Washington, and Miss Ellen H. Thomas is established in the latter city for the winter, having associated herself with Miss Horton's sanatory gymnashum.

The new schoolbouse at Sandy Spring is progressing rapidly, and will be ready for occupancy in a few weeks.

We icarn that rome more young men have been seized with the Klondike fever, and, strange to say, one of them hails from the very farm upon which there is a gold mine that was worked some forty-fi

A party was given by several of the colored people of Laurel Saturday night, and while there will enforce the law. It is almost impossible for a lady to pass along the street after dark Saturday evening. The attention of the office has been called to this several times.

lig. the object of which is to organize a social club.

The West End Club will hold meetings once a week, and at every meeting speakers of prominence will be present.

Great improvements have been made on the Washington and Baltimore turnpike between Laurel and Baltimore. It has been heretofore almost impossible for teams to pass over this road, and the improvement is greatly appreciated by the farmers.

HYATTSVILLE.

Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Richardson have gone t

J. C. Ellis, secretary; John G. Holden, treasurer; H. W. Gore, captain; Wm. A. Noel, jr., lieutenant.

The residence of Mr. Jackson H. Crain, near this place, was entered by a thief last Sanday night. Mr. Crain was aroused by the barking of his dog, and going downstairs, armed with a shotgun, he discovered the robber at the end of the hail. Before Mr. Crain could fire the burglar slipped out the back door and made good his escape. Upon investigation, it was found that an entrance had been effected through a cellar window, but the burglar dol not have time to steal anything.

The visiting committee of the local council, Brotherhood of St. Andrew of Washington, visited the local chapter here last Thesday night for the purpose of advising the Hyaitsville chapter upon the work of the brotherhood. After the meeting the entire party was entertained at the residence of Mrs. H. C. Dobbs.

A special meeting of the Bladensburg democratic club was held Wednesday evening at Coldenstroth's for the purpose of making arrangements for a ratification meeting. Considerable routine business was disposed of, and a committee on arrangements appointed. The next meeting of the club will take place Tuesday, October 19.

A meeting of the Pinckney Memorial Church Guild was held Thursday evening at the residence of Capt. Charles G. Gordon. Plans booking toward the financial betterment of the church were discussed, and refreshments served during the evening.

The Riverdale Athletic Club has issued invita-

The Riverdale Athletic Club has issued invita-tions to a dance and reception, to be held at Masonic Hall, this place, Friday evening. October to relatives in East Baltimore, Ohio, Messrs, Wm. A. Magruder, Frank Wilson, Miss Amanda Counselman and Rev. G. W. McCullough

October 27.

Miss Lutie Veirs recently sustained a painful accident. Sac fell down a spiral stairway and cut an artery in her wrist by her arm breaking through a window. Prompt surgical attention alone average.

Jurors have been drawn as follows to serve at the November term of court: First district-Le-deux E. Riggs, Samuel N. Plummer, George E. Gaither. Second—William H. Berson, jr., George E. Beall, Josias Thompson. Third—John Jones, Trugene H. Aud, Charles M. Williams, William A. Gassaway. Fourth—Joseph J. Detrick, William Dorsey, Dorsey W. Offutt, Dorsey L. Peters, Lone Deede, William Poole, William F. Rabbitt. Fifth-Michael Peter, James Halpin, Asbury Benn, Mortimer O. Stabler. Sixth-William P. Dawson, Benjamin G. Harriss, Jetson G. Fields, Seventh-Benjamin Perry, James Garthwalter; recitation, Miss Eva, Hangi; reading, Mrs. Hospiral; recitation, Helep, Huyter; mandolin solo, Miss Daisy Clarke, accompanied by Miss Tessa Laing. All the numbers were heartly encored, and the whole affair reducted great credit upon Misses Clarke and Laing; who had the matter in charge-Much of the talant was from Washington. Especial mention should be given to little Helen Hunter, a child of about eight years, whose recitations were larger and application. The evening closed with refreshments are the second with the Dormitory are: J. Chan. Miss Grace Thomas has returned from a visit to Philadelphia, Pa.

The new arrivals higher the Dormitory are: J. Chan. Miss Grace Thomas has returned from a visit to Philadelphia, Pa.

The commissioners have approved the following the Winter Miss of the Washington. Especial mention should be given to little delen Hunter, a child of about eight years, whose recitations were the extended with refreshment application of the waster of the program of the waster of the program of the program of the program of the waster of the program of the program of the program consisted of vocal services of the program consisted of v again returned to Rockville to spend the scholastic year.

The social held at the residence of Mrs. Jas., Alien on Thursday last by the ladies of the M. E. Church was a very pleasant affair and quite a success financially.

A very pleasant dance took place at Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Droop's country villa, "Chestnut Hill." near Rockville, to celebrate the event of the eighteenth birthday of their daughter Agnes. Many young friends from Rockville and Washington assembled and enjoyed the festivities of the pleasant occasion. It was an early morning hour when, by the light of the moon and fireworks, the joyla' friends left the house.

Railroad Ticket Slot Machines.

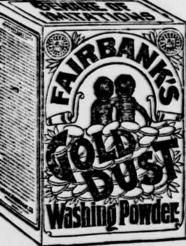

There is a rovel little convenience in nost of the German railway stations which United States. Passengers for suburban stations, instead of going to the regular ticket office and standing in line for sevbox, and by dropping a nickel in the glot or a coin equivalent to the amount of the fare, can supply themselves with a ticket in an instant. There are rows of these boxes erected against the wall in convenient locations. The name of the town is painted in large letters, and underneath the price of the ticket. If it happens to be a mark, you slip the coin into the slot and press the button, and a cardboard ticket falls into the receiver, which the passenger picks up, passing on without the slightest delay. The whole transaction does not oc-tleman makes his own sirup. He makes his own oats and barley and he produces a large number of bales of cotton. horses and mules that he works are native to his farm. He has been known to saw timber from his own forest and send it to a factory, getting a part of it back in the form of furniture. This farmer is not a great politician. He is not even a free-silver man. He reads the newspapers carefully. He is not poor. He is not dependent. But he is a very busy man. He is so poor that he rarely has a day to is so poor that he rarely has a day to spend away from his own large plantation as many hours in the day. There are farmers who are able to indulge in more leisure than is this Greenville farmer, but Uncle Silas-"What does it say on that there sign-it ain't 'no trouble to show Aunt Melinda—"Yes; but it's a heap of trouble to get 'em showed."

Klondike?

DUST

Chicago. St. Louis. New York. Philadelphia.

